A FEAST OF FOODS

Can you guess which European countries these English food words originate from?

- Broccoli
- Pizza
- Baguette
- Chocolate
- Gherkin
- Pitta
- Cookie
- Marmalade
- Potato
- Pavlova
- Caramel
- Pretzel
- Yoghurt
- Hamburger

DID YOU KNOW:

SMORGASBORD
originates in Sweden, where it translates literally to 'sandwich table'

BOOZE, BRANDY & GIN
are all words of Dutch origin

SPOON SWEETS
are sweet preserves, served in a spoon as a gesture of hospitality in Greece and Russia

GUMMY BEARS
originate in Germany (where they are known as Gummibärchen), as does Haribo

Explore more food vocabulary on www.macmillandictionary.com

©2015 Macmillan Education

macmillan education

Caramel & Baguette: France, Pizza & Broccoli: Italy, Pretzel & Hamburger: Germany, Cookie & Gherkin: Holland, Pavlova: Russia, Yogurt: Turkey, Pitta: Greece, Potato & Chocolate: Spain, Marmalade: Portugal.